William Torian Spent Most of His Eighty-Seven Years
on Kentucky Soil.

Mrs. Minnie Ladd Dies at Cairo, Ill.

BRIDE OF FEW MONTHS BURNED.

William Torian, better known as "Uncle Billy," one of the few surviving plantation overseers of antebellum days, was found dead this morning at the home of his son, R. E. Torian, near Wallace park. He was 87 years old and had been feeble for a number of years. He was the oldest child of a family of ten, and the last to survive. His wife is dead and he is survived by the following children: R. E. Torian, J. B. Torian, J. A. Torian, Mrs. Kate Harris, of McCracken county, and Mr. D. W. Torian, of Memphis. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at Mt. Zion. Mr. Torian was a devout Christian.

He was born in Halifax county, Va., September 25, 1823, and in 1835 moved with his parents to Christian county, where he resided until 1853, when he came to this county. He was overseer of the first five miles of the construction of what is now the Memphis division of the Illinois Central.

He married Miss Nellie Belle Tomblinson, of Hopkins county, February 4, 1855, and lived in Christian county, acting as overseer until February 1, 1865, when he returned to McCracken county.

Mrs. Mollie Ladd, wife of John D. Ladd, passenger agent for the Illinois Central railroad at Cairo, Ill., died suddenly at her home in that city at 3 o'clock this morning. The body will arrive at 7:45 tomorrow morning, and the train will be stopped at Madison street, from which point it will be taken directly to Oak Grove cemetery. The funeral was held this afternoon at the Cairo Baptist church.

A Bride Dies.
Mrs. Bezie Harvey, formerly of Paducah, a bride of twelve months, died yesterday at Cairo. Roosevelt is Invited to be Guest at German Imperial Palace While in Berlin--Gets Personal Letter

Bryan's Letter Will be Read
at Jefferson Club Banquet Tonight--He Refers to Issues of 1896.

Porto Maurizio, Italy, April 13.—Roosevelt today received a personal letter from Emperor William, of Germany, inviting him and his family to be guests at the palace when the emperor visits Berlin. It is believed Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt will accept. The emperor and Kermit left this afternoon for Venice. The mayor of Porto Maurizio gave out a proclamation, saying "Our most distinguished fellow citizen is leaving the city." The document expressed the pleasure and honor the city derived from a visit. The station was decorated with flowers.

The fact that the Kaiser laid aside his official red tape and invited them to the palace in a personal letter is considered noteworthy. Mrs. Roosevelt and Ethel will remain at Maurizio until April 20, when they will rejoin Roosevelt and Kermit at Paris.

Bryan's Letter.

Washington, April 13.—W. J. Bryan's letter to his Jeffersonian friends will be read tonight at the Jefferson banquet. The committee in charge, after considering the matter, reached this decision. Some members objected on account of references to issues of 1896. The letter says monopoly prices have at last provoked protest; the people are looking for a remedy and probably will adopt the Democratic remedy. He said the people will join the Democrats, and declare monopolies intolerable and intolerable. He said Taft in a speech in New York admitted that the prices are higher on account of the increase of gold. This is an endorsement of the Democratic platform of 1896.

King in Paris.

Paris, April 13.—It is probable Roosevelt will meet King Edward in Paris next week. Word from Biarritz says the king will visit Paris next week on his way home, and visit President Fallieres the same day he gives a dinner in honor of Roosevelt. No attempt will be made to bring the king and ex-president together.

LARGE PIECE OF STEEL PUTS OUT EYE SIGHT

As a result of a chip of steel striking him in the eye, W. D. Evans, a boilermaker's helper at the Illinois Central shops, no doubt will lose the sight of his left eye. This morning while at work, the chip of steel weighing nine grains, struck him in the corner of the eye, and imbedded itself in the rear of the eyeball. It was withdrawn by the physicians at the hospital, but little hope is entertained in saving his sight. It was the largest piece of metal ever taken from a patient's eye at the hospital. Evans resides on Tennessee street between Eleventh and Twelfth streets.

Offers to take the place for a salary of $40 a month have been received and other offers up to $100 a month have been filed. The members of the committee are Magistrates U. S. Walston, C. W. Emery and County Judge Barkley.

PRISONERS ALL SAVED WHEN JAIL TAKES FIRE

New Haven, Conn., April 13.—Several companies of militia with loaded rifles surrounded the New Haven jail today and took out all the prisoners in time to prevent their being burned to death, when fire starting in the workshop, was communicated to the cell house. WILLIAM GEAGAN

IDENTIFIED THROUGH STORY IN EVENING SUN.

Unknown Man Killed By Train at Dulaney, Ky., was from Paducah.

Through the news story in "The Evening Sun" yesterday afternoon the body of the man killed at Dulaney was identified as that of Will Geagan, 33 years old, who has resided in the city for many years. The identity was established by means of a letter found in his pockets, although his name was misspelled.

Mr. Geagan left Paducah Monday night for Louisville, where it is believed that he was offered a position. Owing to recent illness he was short of funds, and probably was riding a freight train to Louisville when he fell from the car, and one leg was cut off and his arms crushed.

His sister, Miss Mary Geagan, 418 Kentucky avenue, read the news story last night, and immediately suspected that the dead man was her brother. She telephoned to Mr. Thomas Potter, and County Attorney Hodge, of Edinburg, who ascertained that the man was Will Geagan, of Paducah. He has resided in Paducah about eighteen years, and during that time had been in the employ of the railroads as well as steamboat as clerk. Recently he was employed on the steamship John L. Lowery and for a time served as night clerk at the wharf-boat.

The body arrived in Paducah this morning at 9 o'clock from Dulaney. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Geagan, who removed a few months ago from Paducah to Winfield, La. Miss Mary Geagan, of Paducah, is his only sister, while his brothers are: Richard Geagan, of Chicago; J. H. Geagan and Louis Geagan, of Winfield, La.; and Maurice Geagan, of Rochelle, La. Mr. J. H. Geagan was in St. Louis and notified of his death, and he arrived in the city today.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the St. Francis de Sales church, the Rev. Father H. A. Connelley officiating. The burial will be in Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Rupert Goheen, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Goheen, of Sharp, died this morning at 9:30 o'clock after an illness of meningitis. The boy had been ill for seven weeks. The funeral will take place tomorrow with burial in Oakland cemetery.

NO SUGAR PROBE BY LOWER HOUSE

BEST TO LET DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE DEAL WITH THE SITUATION.

New Orleans, April 13.—Declaring the government had outwitted the Sugar Trust at New Orleans by installing moving scales, Winifred T. Denison, customs prober, from the office of the attorney general today said he did not believe the government lost a cent in weighing sugar in New Orleans. He said the probe failed to disclose any irregularities at the New Orleans end of the Sugar Trust. The weighing methods were found correct.

No Congressional Probe.

Washington, April 13.—After a consultation at the white house today it is reported that a congressional investigation of the Sugar Trust would be inexpedient at this time. He was given a ticket to Paducah and arrived in the city early Sunday morning.

On his return Johnny promised to be good, attend school and immunity from punishment was likewise promised by the officers. However, the boy failed to carry out his agreement and this morning instead of going to school, he hiked out to the Union station, preparatory to catching a train out of the city. Mr. Barkley was notified, and he followed the boy to the railroad yards. The boy caught sight of Mr. Barkley and fled, successfully eluding his pursuer. At noon Truant Officer Barkley returned to the court house without the boy, but said he would continue the search this afternoon.

GUIRE WAS SEEN WITH MURDERED BOY IN PADUCAH

According to Evidence Police Have, Though He Denies
It.

No Question as to Identity of Victim.

SHOES THAT FIT THE CORPSE.

One assured fact in connection with the murder of Luther ("Red") Thompson, of Decatur, Ill., has been established by Detectives James Collins, who is assisting the police department in gathering evidence for the conviction of the murder or murderers. That is that, both Thompson the murdered boy and Bert Guire were seen together until last Sunday morning when Albert Hale put in his appearance and took Thompson's place. Thompson was found dead Sunday morning and two young men, answering the descriptions of Guire and Hale, were seen in that vicinity shortly before the body of the murdered boy was found. Guire and Hale were caught by the police Sunday night, while they were attempting to leave the city on a southbound freight train, pulling slowly out of the south yards.

The Shoes Fit.

The shoes worn by Guire are laced and fit the feet of the dead boy, while the laced shoe strings fit the prints of the laces on the socks of Thompson exactly. When the boy was found a pair of button shoes laid by his side. The shoes were cut, and it is the theory that Guire took Thompson's shoes and left his button shoes. Another fact learned by Detective James Collins, it is said, that a witness has been interviewed who identified Thompson and Guire as the two men he saw Saturday sitting by the side of a small stream washing their feet. He noticed particularly that Thompson wore laced shoes, and remembered that Guire wore button shoes before he was shown the shoes found by the body.

Detective Collins has devoted many hours to a solution of the crime, but has not disclosed the evidence he has learned. Yesterday afternoon with Sheriff George Houser, Detective Collins made another careful examination of the scene of the murder and the patch of woods. Whether any more garments were found he declined to say.

Hale is more talkative than Guire, who is kept in the rotunda, while his pal is in a private cell. Yesterday afternoon frequent callers were at the jail to see the men, and on one occasion Guire turned his back, and declined to face the visitor. Hale sleeps soundly in his cell at night. They say that they wish the police would hurry and decide what they are going to do, whether they will be set free or held as prisoners.

Guire admitted knowing Thompson, but denied being with him recently. He said he saw him last one year ago. In spite of numerous questions fired at Guire and Hale at the county jail the police are unable to obtain any satisfactory statement.

Many Inquiries.

Having read an account of Thompson's death, George T. Sears, of Drakeboro, arrived here last night to view the corpse at Nance & Rogers. After observing it closely he said it was not his son, Willie, who was missing from home, although the dead boy resembled him. Mr. Sears walked Former Paducah Boy Writes An Article on Our Country Churches.

The rural church in America is the subject of an article in the Christian Century by the Rev. Vaughan Dabney, of Chicago. He says: "The conditions of rural life in America are attracting attention as never before. Our papers and magazines are replete with information concerning dry farming, irrigation projects, and the wheat fields of the great northwest. We read of the prosperous farmer with his telephone and automobile, who sends his son to an agricultural college; we follow with interest the work of the country life commission, appointed by former president Roosevelt; we discover that land shows and stock exhibits are common occurrences.

And as we note these signs, which indicate an awakening people, it is with chagrin that we discover the apparent inertia of the country church. The farmer, disdainful of the use of an antiquated plow, is content for the church to use the worn out implements of a preceding generation. His children must receive instruction in schools and colleges of high rank, where they sit at the feet of trained and efficient teachers; yet in the rural Sunday school they are taught but little of the fundamentals of religion. Training and organized adult classes are rare; missions, home and foreign, are neglected.

Who is to blame for this condition? It may be the city man, who, because of his absorption in his own problem, has neither time nor inclination to attempt the betterment of rural "POOR RICHARD," said "The people are the best judges of merit." This is forcibly illustrated by the increased demand for the famous God Liver and Iron tonic known as VINO.

Its worth is demonstrated over and over again by building up the run-down, weak and aged, and to overcome pulmonary troubles. While worthy remedies are disappearing entirely, the fact that the demand for VINO is rapidly increasing is ample proof of its intrinsic merit. W. B. McPherson, druggist, Paducah, Ky.

conditions. It may be the country man, who, becoming so engrossed in the erection of new barns and the installation of better equipment, has for a season neglected the interests of the kingdom. But whoever may be to blame, it is evident that this question is of vital import and merits the earnest consideration of every one—whether he be citizen of "no mean town" or an inhabitant of a country town.

Exodus From Country to City.
Probably we can best determine the importance of this subject by a brief review of a much discussed topic, which deals with the exodus from the country to the city. Those on the affirmative side of the question present plausible arguments and bring to light many facts worthy of our close scrutiny. The population of America a century and a half ago was largely rural; in fact, over 93 percent of the population of the colonies lived in the country. John Fiske states that when Jefferson entered William and Mary College in 1760—but a lad of seventeen—that he had never seen as many as a dozen houses grouped. And the condition a half century later was but little changed. For in the beginning of the nineteenth century when Virginia possessed one-sixth of the population of the United States, her largest cities were Norfolk, with 6,926, and Richmond, with 5,737. In the entire north there were but six cities that had a population over 8,000. But the passing of another hundred years shows a marked change, for at the beginning of the twentieth century there were in the United States 517 cities having more than 8,000 inhabitants. The cities of Maine, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, Maryland and Illinois in the decade preceding the year 1890 gained 2,509,000, while the country lost 200,000 of its population. In the year 1880 the committee on agriculture and immigration for New Hampshire reported 1,442 vacant and abandoned farms; while the ninth annual report of the bureau of labor statistics for Michigan shows that in the above-mentioned state there were 7,418 less farms inhabited in 1890 than a decade previous. In brief, out of forty states of 25,746 townships, 10,003 lost in population during the years intervening between 1880-1890. And the affirmatives, besides calling our attention to the fact that the last census shows two-fifths of our population are inhabitants of our large towns and cities, predict that when the report of the next census is made, about

One-half of the people will be urban inhabitants.

Granting that these arguments are true, and agreeing to their conclusion that one long one-half of our population can be found in our towns of over 8,000, it causes one to feel all the more anxious concerning the efficiency of the country church. It is to the advantage of the city resident that a clean type of manhood should reside in his midst. Men, moral men, child-like in their faith, nothing in their zeal and patience, have ever advanced the best interests of the cities, yet they are all too few; and we to our urban life if the incoming thousands have lost their faith in God, and forgotten their obligations to their fellow man! The rural church has an excellent opportunity to demonstrate her usefulness to the world, and prove her right to an existence by furnishing to the urban inhabitants a splendid type of manhood, which would fight with vigor for the speedy rectifying of existing evils. But at the present time it seems as though such an opportunity has not been grasped. Those familiar with the true state of affairs in the city, tell us that one of the most discouraging features of a city pastor is the lack of interest the new inhabitant shows in church work. He becomes lost in the throng, and his indifference to things spiritual causes him to seldom gravitate toward the house of the Lord.

But the champions on the negative side of the question present equally convincing proofs. They admit that the cities are growing but point to their evident congestion and predict a speedy exodus. With the construction of interurban lines and the introduction of the telephone the farm makes no longer a home. W. L. Anderson, in his book, "The Country Church," says that while the population of the United States fell from 56.6 per cent in 1790 to 66.9 per cent in 1900, it was because of rapid multiplication. On reading further we note that during the year 1890 the increase of our population by reproduction varies from 14 to 28 per cent. If Massachusetts had not received a single immigrant since 1850, and could have kept her people, at the beginning of the twentieth century she would have had only 225,000 people less than the statistics show. Under the same conditions, Connecticut would have passed her actual figures and had at least 222,000 in addition. New Hampshire could have reached her population and with her surplus of 500,000 have filled a Boston where Portsmouth now stands in the words of the author, "If a Chinese wall had been built around New England, and no one escaped and their population grew, they could have provided for all the cities and furnished to Newport 1,500,000 people." The negatives claim that it is time for the pendulum to swing in the other direction, and consequently they prophesy a rush to the rural life.

Strategic Position of Country Church.
Now if those on the negative side are correct, and if in the near future a great throng will pour into the country districts, the conditions of the country church is still a matter of great importance. For in her present condition, with preaching once or twice a month and manifest inactivity in regard to systematic work, the church could hardly care for the increased population in an efficient manner. Our opinion relative to this question of an exodus from country to city may differ, but we certainly agree that the position occupied by the country church is a strategic one.

What is the condition of the average rural church? First let us notice the building—its appearance and construction. We know of a few handsome country churches; quite a number present an inviting appearance, but were it possible to strike an average we have our doubts about the cheerful aspect of the mean. From personal observation in many states of the union, and from an examination of photographs of rural houses of worship in several denominations, we conclude that the appearance of this average building would not be especially inviting. It would suffer in a comparison with the neat and attractive public school. And as to its construction, every one is aware of the unfitness of the building for efficient work. As yet the rural mind has not conceived of the church building as a useful work shop. In this structure of one large room we find no separate class rooms; pews are not even ordained off; pandemonium reigns while the lesson is being taught.

But what of rural spiritual life? Are most of the inhabitants church members, and do they attend regularly? We hear much of the shrillity of the rural communicant. We say that the ringing of the church bell always summons a crowd. But an examination of facts tends to upset this matter to obtain accurate statistics we must conclude that the country membership is small and interest on the wane. The Evangelical Alliance in the summer of 1890 investigated this matter in New England, and unearthed facts which caused a little surprise and dismay. They found from on fourth to one tenth of the population in the small towns and country districts at church on a pleasant Sunday. Less than 50 per cent said they were church members or attendants. In fifteen villages of about 2,000 population, only 23 per cent were church members. They found the services uninteresting and enthusiasm on the wane. It is difficult in the minutes of the General Assemblies from the various religious bodies relative to our theme, and we must be content with general statements. Churches are dying; while we are bly of the Presbyterian church in the United States for 1899 we find expressions which may safely be said to indicate the true condition in the various denominations. We read that "about a year ago the attention of the committee was called to the possibility of a simultaneous revival in rural communities. Emphasis was laid upon the fact that most churches in rural districts have lost heavily in the past two years." And it is fitting that the disciples should take their condition more seriously. We are often too optimistic about our marvelous growth. One of our leading educators recently said, "Right now we are probably losing at the rear of the procession as fast as we are gaining at the front. While we are planting new churches, old churches are dying; while we are strengthening our stronger churches, our smaller churches are growing weaker." And again, in the report of our Centennial secretary we find these statements: "Many of our country churches in all states are actually losing in membership and in many instances are ceasing to exist." It is evident then that the condition of rural spiritual life, if measured by the strength of the church, is far from satisfactory.

Bitter Spirit of Secretarianism.
In there must be causes for these effects, and what are they? In the first place there is the bitter spirit of secretarianism so prevalent in rural communities. Federation is unknown, and any effort which tends toward the union of forces is chilled by the frost of indifference. One writer displays the true condition of affairs when he tersely says: "The churches have chosen to die in independence, rather than yield to a prudent consolidation. But the churches of Massachusetts are making an attempt to eliminate this cause. They have chosen an inter-denominational committee, and urged them to rectify such an apparent evil. This committee has divided the rural churches into three groups. There is the strong church, which is a help to the community. This is allowed to develop unhindered. There is the weak church, which is given material aid. There is the superfluous church, which is eradicated. Of course attempts are by no means entirely successful, for they are not heartily received by all. Yet they are indications that the churches in that state are not ignoring their weaknesses, and are trying to bring about better condition of things. Would that every state would make just such an attempt!

Again, individualism so rampant in the country hampers the progress of the church. It destroys the cohesion essential to a well-directed organization; it causes the church to become self centered. And because of its presence it is a difficult matter to carry out successfully a systematic program with a unity of forces. To overcome such a condition is no child's play. Individualism thrives when a more advanced state or agriculture prevails. Few farmers' clubs exist; sociological agencies are unknown. And yet the church to be true to her mission, must grapple with this problem; and her ministers and laymen should welcome any suggestions made by students of rural life. The suggestion of President Butterfield of the A. and M. College of Massachusetts is worthy of note. He tells us that only by a slow process of education can this cause be eradicated, and that it is the duty of

HINTS FOR PROSPECTIVE BUILDERS

This is a great era of home-building in Paducah. Everybody seems to be realizing that the best home is a home they own and have built as they want it. For the benefit of our readers who are considering building and are still undecided as to the style or price of home to build, we are, each week on this page, showing original, attractive and practical illustrations of modern moderate priced houses that will offer helpful suggestions and give a fairly accurate idea of what it will cost to build.

This Attractive Home for $3,800

This eight-room, two-story house, with bath, furnace, grates and mantels, should be built within the above estimate. The plan is pleasing and well arranged, with waste space reduced to a minimum. Among its many features of note we mention particularly the large reception hall, the combination front and rear stairway, the unique front porch arrangement. While there is nothing radically new in this plan it is of a type that is always in favor with a great many people, and to these we believe that it will particularly appeal.

Complete plans and specifications, in duplicate, for building this house may be secured from this office for $35.00. For alterations, making additions or reversing plans a slight charge will be made, dependent as to the amount of extra work involved.

Daily Thought.

The only failure a man ought to fear is failure in cleaving to the purpose he sees to be best.—George Eliot.

Witnesses before the high cost of living probe said "cold storage is a great equalizer." We have heard the same thing said about death.

Another Roosevelt policy is in jeopardy at the hands of the national administration. The interstate commerce commission is trying to lower the berth rate.

REACHING THE BOYS.

As we understand it the Paducah pastors have come to the conclusion that the churches have invested upward of a half million dollars in property, intended among other things for the purpose of elevating mankind, which are shut against men six days in the week, leaving him to the mercy of all other kinds of social influences, excepting religious, during that time. They desire to make the church the center of social influence over juveniles, as well as adults, without in the slightest taking away their youth. They are not trying to make religion more attractive—for there is nothing repelling or austere about religion. It is the human obstacles a man has to surmount to get at it, that repels—but, recognizing the church as the storehouse of religious culture, they are endeavoring to make the modern church meet the modern need in cities.

MR. CONSUMER, AGAIN.

Bob Evans warned us against permitting railroads to control Panama shipments by possessing the docks of our ocean ports, and pointed to the fact that nearly the whole Pacific coast has thus been seized by trans-continental lines. On the Great Lakes we observe that the cost of shipping wheat from Duluth to Buffalo is moderate, while the cost of shipping wheat flour is extortionate. The reason is that wheat elevators are compelled to take wheat from any boat that hauls it, and tramp steamers control the price of wheat shipments; but the big railroads own the wharves and tramp steamers are charged excessively for wharf privileges; so the railroad boats have a monopoly on the wheat shipments, for which the consumer suffers.

CLEARING THE DECKS.

The rise of a new political party out of the west to defeat the national Republican is remote, as Henry Watterson says, and, moreover, it lacks a leader. There are men of intellect and strong personalities in the coterie of insurgents from the western plains; but it requires more than that. Only a man of genius can command a following of sufficient dimensions to be considered seriously in national politics. It took a Lincoln to organize the Republican party and a Jefferson to organize Democracy. The Democratic party for twelve years has been practically the personal following of Mr. Bryan, and the Republican party for five years has been the party of Roosevelt absolutely. It was his personal endorsement that won the nomination and election of President Taft. Roosevelt could have led away from the Republican party a following that would have swept everything west and north of the Ohio river. He could today lead the whole west out of the Republican ranks, and the boldness of the insurgent senators and representatives indicate that their constituents hold the policies and principles of Roosevelt more precious than loyalty to ancestral party.

The fact that this is so, and that Roosevelt returning will continue to be a vital force in the party, will restrain the reactionary element in the national organization, lest haply Roosevelt and those western insurgents might withdraw altogether and leave the organization to the mercy of the Democrats. With the reactionaries restrained from exercising their power, which is greater right now than it ever will be again, the insurgent element will continue to gather strength, and before President Taft's term is out, we anticipate the absolute control of the Republican organization by the progressives, who will be in hearty sympathy with President Taft's own announced policies. It is a gigantic struggle now going on within the Republican party to throw off the incubus, and rid itself and the nation of an element and influence, which has dominated affairs in both parties for decades. The struggle is most violent and conspicuous in the Republican party, because it is the majority party and so far as active administration goes, the government. What goes on in Democratic ranks among the Roger Sullivan, the "Hink Dink" Kennas, the "Fingy" Conners, Tammany hall and the Louisville ring, in more easily concealed.

As Roosevelt's administration was conspicuous for pointing out the enemies of the republic, the administration of President Taft will be remarkable for clearing the decks of the majority party for action.

STATE PRESS.

Knows Who It Doesn't Want.

The Gazette is not specially wedded to the Hon. James B. McCreary as the Democratic candidate for governor, but, like many other Democrats we feel that the Hon. Ben Johnson, of Bardonia is not the proper sort of man for our candidate, and we are anxious to find a better man than Mr. Johnson, whose defeat for the nomination is of the most vital importance to the party. With Mr. Johnson's name at the head of the state ticket next year there are many Democrats who would stay at home or else vote for the Republican candidate, if a clean and sober Republican is offered. Mr. Johnson has a well organized machine behind his candidacy, embracing in its closest councils such men as John Whalen, of Louisville, Senator Combs, of Lexington, Conn. Linn, of Murray, and all of their underlings, many of whom served them instead of the people during the recent session of the legislature. We are opposed to such men controlling the destiny of the Democratic party in Kentucky. Senator McCreary is clean and able, and his name and character are known to the intelligent voters in every county in the state. For these reasons his candidacy appeals to us strongly.—Clinton Gazette.

Runaway Boys Captured As They Get Off Train.

Patrolman Henley Franklin made a unique capture yesterday evening when he gathered in three runaway boys from Central City, just after they had descended from a box car near Union station. The lads gave their names as Ernest Banks, 15; Alfred Armstrong, 17, and George Blackburn, 17. The father of the Banks boy arrived last night and took his prodigal son home. Armstrong and Blackburn were taken home at 11:20 o'clock this morning by George T. Sears, of Drakeboro, who consented to take them as he was en route home from Paducah. All said they were sorry they ran away and promised to stay closer to their mothers' apron strings in the future.

His Shoulder Dislocated.

Mr. Ed Rogers, of the Powell-Rogers Implement company on North Third street, was injured yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock while stripping the casing from a buggy. The heavy crate fell on him pinning him to the floor and dislocating his right shoulder. He received severe bruises over the body but is able to be up today.

CO-EDS' FLOWERS

WILL NOT BE PERMITTED ON THE STAGE.

Unless Rules of The School Board Are Changed Before June Commencement.

Unless the school board change the rule the sweet girl graduates of the 1910 class of the High school will not receive any flowers on the stage this year. For two years the rule has been in effect, and it has worked with such satisfaction that there is little possibility of it being changed. The graduates will be permitted to carry a bouquet, but the rule prohibits the distributing of flowers on the stage to the graduates. Samples of invitations are being submitted by local firms now, and probably in the next two weeks the invitations will be ordered. The honor pupils of the June division of the class will not be announced until the first week in May.

To Maxon Mills.

Next Saturday the boys of the High school and the Washington school will tramp to Maxon Mills and return, a distance of sixteen miles. Last Saturday the boys made the walk to Lone Oak and return in about two and one-half hours, which is considered fair time although no efforts were made to beat the time of Weston. The walk to Maxon Mills will be longer, but the lads feel equal to the occasion.

REELFOOT

FAMOUS PACER ARRIVES FROM GOLCONDA.

Harry Meyer's String of Steppers Brought to West End Track.

"Reelfoot" is here. The famous pacer who is a favorite with lovers of horse racing in Paducah arrived yesterday afternoon from Golconda with Harry Meyer's string of horses that will be worked out on the local track. Reelfoot is owned by Meyers, who accompanied his string and will be here with the horses. Reelfoot is in good form this year and will push Dr. M. for the honors in July.

Secretary Rodney Davis, of the Paducah Fair association, announced today that other strings of horses were coming here soon to be worked into form and the association has extended a cordial invitation to all who want to come here. The association is desirous of making Paducah a race horse center. The West End track is being worked and the horses will be exercised daily. There are about 20 horses in the stables at present.

MURDER MYSTERY

ed eight miles yesterday to catch a train for Paducah.

Another query, concerning the identity of Thompson, was received today by Chief of Police Singery from L. Renkert, of 195 South Seventh street, St. Louis, Mo. He said he heard from his son last in Oklahoma and asked for a description of the boy.

At 10 o'clock last night Chief Singery received a long distance telephone message from Patrolman W. V. Davidson at Decatur, Ala., in behalf of Mrs. May Guire, mother of Bert Guire, one of the young men being held here on suspicion. Mrs. Guire asked for an account of the murder and Chief Singery sent her press clippings giving a detailed account, instead of writing a letter.

No word has been received from relatives of Thompson and he will be held here until some communication with his mother or sisters, supposedly in Birmingham, Ala., is arranged. Patrolman at Decatur knew Thompson and Guire and says they have been missing from home some time.

Another Inquiry.

Acting Coroner C. W. Emery today received a letter from the Rev. Robert McGowan, 1126 North Second street, Memphis, inquiring about the dead boy. His son he wrote went to Paducah on a freight train, but the description does not tally with that of Thompson.

The Evening Sun's Daily Markets.

Live Stock.

Louisville, April 13.—The receipts of hogs were very light—only 204 head; for the two days this week, 1,939. The market opened weak and a dime lower on all grades. Selected 165 pounds and up selling at $10.55; 130 to 165 pounds, $10.25; pigs ranged from $8.55 to $9.90; roughs, $9.75 down. The pens were pretty well cleared by reason of the light receipts, but the market closed very weak, with indications for lower prices.

Cattle.—The receipts of cattle were 94 head; for the two days this week, 1,094. The attendance of buyers was light, the demand narrow and the market very quiet; but little doing. There was a fair call for choice, handyweight butcher cattle and the best feeders and stockers at about steady prices. All common and medium kinds of cattle were extremely slow sale and draggy. Bulls steady, canners dull, milch cows unchanged. No heavy cattle here. Feeding easy.

Calves.—Receipts, 98; for the two days, 246. The market ruled quiet. The best, 7 1/2c; medium, 5 1/2c; 7c; common, 2 1/2c to 6c.

Sheep and Lambs.—Receipts light; for the two days, 225. The market ruled about steady. Good, fat sheep, 6 1/2c down; good fat lambs, 8c down. Medium and common sheep and lambs slow sale.

St. Louis, April 13.—Cattle.—Receipts 4,000; market steady; native beef steers, $6.70 to $8.50; calves in carload lots, $3.50 to $2.50. Hogs.—Receipts 8,500; market 5c to 10c lower; packers, $10 to 10 1/2c; butchers and best heavy, $10 1/2 to 10 1/4c. Sheep.—Receipts 1,800; market steady; native muttons, $7.50 to $8; lambs, $8 to 10 1/2c.

Tobacco Market.

Louisville, April 13.—The local tobacco market was unusually good on dark leaf, but there was no change in the burley. The offerings follow:

Burley, 250; dark, 136; original inspection, 160; reviews, 11; total, 161. First sale at the Ninth street house.

The Ninth street house sold 42 dark at $5.05 to $11.75.

The Dark warehouse sold 58 lbs at $4.50 to $10.50 with five rejections.

The Planters' warehouse sold 12 lbs. burley at $9.80 to $15.75, and two dark, $7.00 to $8.40, with no rejections.

Hanquet to Singers of Temple Israel.
The congregation of Temple Israel gave a beautiful hanquet last evening from 7 until 9 o'clock at The Palmer in honor of the members of the Temple Israel choir and the singers who had graciously assisted them during the past year. It was a delightful affair with an elaborate 8-course menu. Covers were laid for 23.

SHE BELIEVES SAVED LIFE

Lady in Tecumseh, Okla., Has Strong Faith in the Benefit She Obtained From Cardui, the Woman's Tonic.

Tecumseh, Okla.—I do believe, says Mrs. Ella Epperson, of this place, "that if it hadn't been for Cardui, I wouldn't have been living today."

I am so glad that I began using Cardui, when I did. Before I began to use it, I was in bad health and suffered considerable pain in my head, shoulders, back, side, limbs, and lower part of my body.

Cardui helped me more than anything I ever did take, and I am in better health, since taking it, than I have been in, for four years.

You are not giving yourself "a square deal," unless you take Cardui, when you feel that you need a tonic. You don't need a doctor to tell you when you do need a tonic.

Only common sense. When you feel tired, dull, lack energy and vitality, and are nervous, cross and irritable, it's not because of the weather, it's because you need a tonic.

If a woman, no two thoughts are necessary. The first thought is enough: Take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Nobody can deny that the best tonic for a woman to take, is a tonic for women—CARDUI.

Better. Healthier Women

are known to exist in this country by thousands because freed from pain and suffering by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Could such a record be made without actual and superior merit? Read what this woman says, and realize that the results secured in her case could not have been made except by a very good medicine.

Lawrence, Kans. — "I was a great sufferer from a weakness, irregular periods, headaches, backaches and other female troubles, which caused a weak and broken-down condition of the system. My side was so sore I could not lie on it. I saw in my daily paper that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good for all female troubles and had done so much for other suffering women, so I felt sure it would help me, and it has helped me wonderfully. I got relief from the first bottle. My aches and pains all left me and as I continued taking the Compound I grew stronger. Within three months I was a perfectly well woman, and I want this letter made public to show what benefits women may derive from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. Julia A. Snow, Route No. 8, Lawrence, Kans.

Science in surgery and electricity has advanced much in the past 30 years, but the treatment of disease by the old fashioned roots and herbs method has never been improved upon. The fact that this leader of them all—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—is today the largest seller of any similar medicine in the world, is proof positive of its value and superiority, for with all our enterprise and advertising we could not keep fooling the people for 30 years. Merit and merit alone is what has made Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the standard medicine for treating diseases peculiar to women.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice in herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.

TAFT GETS EVEN BREAK.

300 of Harvard Law School Vote on Administration.

Cambridge, Mass., April 12.—With two blanks cast, 300 members of the Harvard Law School broke even in a straw vote cast today under the supervision of the Harvard Political Club on the question:

"Resolved, that the record of the present administration for the past year would not justify the re-election of President Taft."

The vote stood 119 to 119. Divided by parties, it was as follows: Republicans for Taft 120, against 59; Democrats for Taft 9, against 65; Socialists for 1, against 1; scattering for 19, against 21.

Why it is that we invariably hear of a man's bad deeds long before the good ones?

COLD STORAGE BIG EQUALIZER

COMMITTEE PROHIBITING HIGH LIVING COST.

Butter Keeps for Years in Storage, While Eggs Must Be Thrown Away After 9 Months.

SOME WITNESSES TESTIFY.

Washington, April 13.—Testimony was given before the senate committee investigating the high cost of living that the cold storage is a great equalizer of prices, while, at the same time, an informal declaration was made that the cold storage is an important and controlling factor in producing and maintaining the high cost of living.

John A. Kunkel, of New York, said that if it were not for the cold storage method eggs would sell as low as 8 and 9 cents a dozen during certain seasons, and as high as 75 cents and $1 in other seasons of the same year.

John G. Walton, of New York, in opposing the bill to prohibit keeping food stuffs in cold storage for a longer period than a year, said that the limitation would be all right for eggs, because they had to be thrown away anyhow after nine months. Butter could be kept for years, he said.

The high prices, said Walton, are caused by the fact that the supply of butter for the entire year does not equal the normal consumption during periods when butter is low. He said the Elgin brand was not recognized in New York and that the so-called butter trust was a myth. He said the oleo makers were partly responsible for the high prices, for they bought butter for coloring their product and that their purpose was to keep butter high so as to make a better market for their cheaper product.

The revolt by the New York people last February against 47 cent butter was given as a reason for the sudden drop of six cents in one day. He said the people quit using butter.

SCHOOL BOARD ADJOURNS UNTIL NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT.

Dr. H. P. Sights Asks Trustees to Adopt Resolution Favoring National Health.

On account of failure of a quorum at the special meeting of the school board last night, adjournment was taken until Friday night, when it was made certain a quorum will be present. Dr. H. P. Sights addressed the trustees on the subject of endorsing the Senator Owens' bill, providing for a national health officer as a member of the president's cabinet. A resolution to that effect will be introduced Friday night.

Frightful Fate Averted.

"I would have been a cripple for life from a terrible cut on my knee cap," writes Frank Dieberry, Kellier, Minn., "without Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which soon cured me." Infallible for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soon cures Burns, Scalds, Old Sores, Bolls, Skin Eruptions. World's best for Piles. 25c at all druggists.

SHOT BURGLAR, FOUND FRIEND.

Detective Fatally Wounds Former Fellow Worker—Will Die. Beaver, Pa., April 12.—Joseph Moore, a detective in the employ of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad had laid in wait for twenty-one nights for the reappearance of a periodic robber, who during the last year has every month or so looted the railway station. He was on guard at midnight last night, when a man entered and broke open the ticket rack with an ax. Moore shot the man twice.

Flashing a bull's-eye lamp into the face of the wounded man after he had fallen, Moore recognized him as a former comrade and fellow-worker in the tin mills near Wellsburg, O. The wounded man will die.

Live Barometers.

Certain animals would appear, according to "The University Correspondent" (London) to act as live barometers! It is said that while frogs remain yellow nothing but fine weather may be expected, but should their coats begin to assume a brown hue it is a sign of coming bad weather. A spider seen spinning its web in the morning heralds a fine day, if seen in the evening, then at least the whole of the night and the following morning will be fine. If it is raining and the spider screeches better weather will ensue.

Would be a queer description for a business but it would cover ours nicely, for we go right down to the seat of the trouble when old furniture is put in our hands for repairs. TENNIS COURT IS DIFFERENT THING
NO MORE STRENUOUS BATTLES
OVER NET.
New Offices Over Old Grounds and
New Grounds Are Very Quiet.

ARCHIE HETT ONLY ARDENT.
Washington, April 13. (United Press.)—A subtle sense of sadness permeates the new tennis court in the white house grounds.
No court could have been more perfect. The net is taut; the squares within the white chalk lines are as mathematically correct as they can be made. No fairer environment could have been selected for it,—not even Versailles itself where the habitués of the court of the grand monarque played the same game in a setting so splendid that Franco went bankrupt in creating it.
The new white house tennis court
under the shade of the budding elms.
The spring breezes waft across the soft fragrance of the magnolia blooming and the hilling music of the plashing fountain nearby. The rolling across the green turf and the spirited scamper about without fear of indignation. The picture is one of perfect—perfect—peace—but peace with sadness.
Vulny does Captain Archibald Hett, with his home figure clad in snowy flannels, invade the domain of profound serenity in an effort to evolve the glory of the days that were.
Heskman Winthrop, assistant secretary of the navy, and Ambassador Lansdown, members of that informal cabinet which is now but a memory, struggle to revivify the fading tradition that traced a parallel in the triumphs of statecraft and the victories of the tennis court. Even the untrammelled energy of Charlie Taft, who sometimes diverts his attention from more boyish pursuits to white the ball over the fence or into the fountain, lifts but momentarily the impalpable veil of melancholy sadness which drops its folds all the more

They cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children.
Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given, except in emergency cases. Ordinary pills, cathartics and purgatives are apt to do more harm than good. They cause griping, nausea and other distressing after-effects that are frequently health-destroying and a life-lasting annoyance.
We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as the safest and most dependable remedy for constipation and associated bowel disorders. We have such absolute faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.
Rexall Orderlies contain an entirely new ingredient which is odorless, tasteless and colorless. As an active agent, it embraces the valuable qualities of the best known lutistical regulator tonics.
Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy. They are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness or other undesirable effects. They have a very natural action upon the glands and organs with which they come in contact, act as a positive and regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel and its dry mucous lining; remove irritation, overcome weakness, tone and strengthen the nerves and muscles, and restore the bowels and associated organs to more vigorous and healthy activity.
Rexall Orderlies completely relieve constipation, except when of a surgical character. They also tend to overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.
There is really no medicine for this purpose so good as Rexall Orderlies, especially for children, aged and delicate persons. They are prepared in tablet form, in two sizes of packages; 12 tablets 10 cents, and 25 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Paducah only at our store.—The Rexall Store, W. H. McPherson, 425

After
La Grippe
"I had suffered several weeks with LaGrippe. Had pains in my head and eyes. It felt as though there was a heavy weight on the top of my head, until it seemed that my brain would burst. I was so nervous that I could not rest or sleep. When I dozed off I would awake with a sudden jerking of my whole body. Dr. Miles' Nerve, Heart Remedy and Nerve and Liver Pills cured me. A number of friends have since realized the same benefits."
MRS. ALVIN H. LOCKS,
Seabrook, N. H.
The after effects of LaGrippe are often more serious than the disease, as it leaves the system in a weakened condition that invites more serious troubles,
such as pneumonia, etc.
Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve should be taken for some time to thoroughly restore nerve strength.
Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by all druggists. If the first bottle does not benefit, your druggist will return your money.

SUBMARINE CABLE
LAID UNDER OHIO RIVER FROM CABESVILLE.
Gives Paducah Another Connection With Evansville, Indiana.
The largest submarine cable ever laid by the East Tennessee Telephone company has been placed across the Ohio river at Carville, which will afford another direct line from Paducah to Evansville, besides opening a new territory. The cable is three inches in diameter and is 2,500 feet long and weighs 34,000 pounds. It was shipped on a flat car and was so heavy that a suitable derrick to transfer it from the car to the barge could not be found. As a solution to the problem the car was rolled on the barge. Inside the cable are fourteen copper wires.
The new line will come down the river opposite the Kentucky shore from Evansville to Carville, where the line crosses, and will take in a number of small towns in Livingston county, and then to Paducah.
Another new line from Evansville is being constructed through Henderson, Sturgis, Marion and then into Paducah, which will give the East Tennessee Telephone company three direct lines between Paducah and Evansville.
Large gangs of men are at work constructing both lines and the lines are expected to be completed in a few weeks. Mr. A. L. Joyner, manager of the local office, has returned from Carville, where the large cable was laid across the bed of the river.

For ten or three years my Mattil, Effinger & Roth Have an Equipment That is Unsurpassed in the State for the Execution of All Funerals—Established 1860.

A business that requires for its successful prosecution a certain refined taste and delicacy of thought and expression towards the patrons and a tender respect and sympathy for their feelings, is that of undertaking and funeral direction. These characteristics, observed so punctiliously by those connected with the establishment of Mattil, Effinger & Roth constitute a most appreciable element in the transactions of its business. This firm is recognized as the pioneer among funeral directors of Paducah and was originally established under the direction of P. Mattil in 1860 and conducted by him for a number of years until the partnership of Mattil & Effinger was formed and was succeeded by Mattil, Effinger & Co. in 1893. The present firm of Mattil, Effinger & Roth was formed three years ago and the business is now conducted under the personal supervision of Fred Roth and Pauline Roth. The location at 130 South Third Street, with office phone 126 and residence phone 150, enables the management to get into close communication almost immediately. The different departments include a reception room and repository, in which a large stock of valuable caskets, coffins and funeral goods is carried. The company has recently installed an underground burglar proof steel vault for the protection of its dead from molestation and a handsome funeral car drawn by correspondingly handsome horses, a pull-buggy for six people and a flower wagon of special design are in service. A call buggy with a storage capacity for embalming apparatus is maintained and an ambulance for accidents, illness, etc., are included. Experienced men are employed to take charge of all funerals. Mr. Fred Roth is a practical man and is highly esteemed for his ability and his efficiency in funeral directing. Their services can be obtained day or night.

His Mother Dead.

Mr. Charles Ackerman, a machinist at the Illinois Central shops, received a telegram yesterday from Mr. C. A. Mills that his mother died yesterday in Jackson, Mich., after a long illness with paralysis. Mr. Mills left Paducah for his home several weeks ago in order to attend her bedside.

Money Comes in Bunches

O. A. A. Chisholm, of Treadwell, N. Y., now, his reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness and general debility. I couldn't sleep, had no appetite, nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of all medical treatment. Then used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old-time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a wonderful medicine." Infallible for Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Blood and Nerves. 50c at all druggists.

CIRCUS CAR

NO. 2 ARRIVES FOR NORRIS & ROWE SHOW.

Eddie Bates and His Bill Posters, and Popular Joe Dornburg in Paducah.

The No. 2 advertising car of the Greater Norris & Rowe circus arrived in Paducah early this morning and Eddie Bates and his twenty-five bill posters, lithographers and banner men were much in evidence throughout the city today. The No. 3 car is now billing the towns and villages within a radius of fifty miles of here. Paducah is considered an excellent circus stand, but it is several seasons since one of the real "Big Tops" showed here. The Norris & Rowe is classed as one of the four great circuses of the United States. Forty double length cars are required to transport it from city to city and it has an army of men on its pay rolls. Following its engagement here next Wednesday, April 20, it goes to Louisville and from that time until the end of the season will play all the large cities of the country from Boston to San Francisco.

The modern circus is distinctly an American institution and no other form of outdoor entertainment can replace it. It has a hold on the affections of all the people, and this applies to the old as well as the young. It is doubtful if the public would permit many liberties in the way of radical changes in so time honored an institution as the circus. In this country it has reached its highest development and perfection. In Europe there are circuses, but time moves slowly there and the caravan still travels by wagon. The largest of them would look pitifully small in comparison with the American show. Other forms of outdoor entertainment have their vogue, such as the "Wild West show," "White Cities," etc., and they attract patronage for a time, but when the flaring bills announce the coming of the circus, then it is the small boy and his elders begin to "sit up and take notice." It is safe to wager that the foremost small boy and his elders will be promptly on hand to witness the glories and splendors of the street parade, with its accompanying bands of music, clowns, elephants, camels, comedians, clowns, sacred oxen, bareback riders and the bespangled ladies and gentlemen about whom there is always a halo of romance. Circus people may be gypsies, but isn't there a touch of gypsy blood in all of us? and the outside life makes for clean, healthy, happy folk?

SAMUEL HIRSCHFIELD

DIES AT JEWISH HOSPITAL IN LOUISVILLE.

Father of Mr. Morris Hirschfeld, of Paducah, and Children in Louisville.

Louisville, April 12—Samuel Hirschfeld, aged sixty-three years, died at the Jewish Hospital Monday evening at 11:20 o'clock after a lingering illness. Mr. Hirschfeld was a native of Lautenberg, West Prussia, but had been a resident of Louisville for thirty-eight years. He is survived by the following children: Lester, Fred, Jacob and Albert Hirschfeld and Mrs. D. Hirschfeld, of this city, and Morris Hirschfeld, of Paducah. The funeral took place at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. D. Hirschfeld, 337 East Gray street. Interment was in Beth Shalom cemetery, Dr. Ignatius Mueller, conducting.

Alex Venters, a mail carrier who was injured by being thrown from a wheel, is recovering rapidly and will return to work in a few days. His left arm was sprained and his body bruised by the fall.

KITTY LEAGUE

REORGANIZATION IS AGAIN BEING TALKED OF.

Question Whether Paducah Will Send Representative to Evansville Sunday.

Will the baseball fans of Paducah send a representative to the meeting of the Kitty reorganization promoters in Evansville next Sunday?

It is practically agreed if the league is reorganized that Paducah will organize a team, and it is considered important that each city be represented at the meeting Sunday. Yesterday afternoon Mr. William E. Cochran received a long distance telephone message from Mr. A. C. Murray, of Clarksville, Tenn., inquiring whether Paducah would be represented. Mr. Cochran assured him that he felt confident some public spirited fan would attend the meeting.

The meeting next Sunday will be important, and for a reorganization of the league it will be necessary for each city to be represented. Then the question of the hour is who will represent Paducah?

The cities considered for membership in the league are: Vincennes, Ind., Henderson, Owensboro, Madisonville, Hopkinsville, Clarksville, Tenn., and Paducah, while Centerville, Ill., is knocking at the door.

the church to begin now to erect public sentiment against individualism.

Country Church's Civic Function.
Then the rural church fails to realize its civic function. Graham Taylor indicates a three-fold civic function of the church in the small towns and country districts.

(1) To have better ideals for country religious life. It is evident that the standard set by many of our country churches (and city churches as well) is too low. No distinction is drawn between the church and the kingdom. To obtain salvation one must only be enrolled on the church book. But with more teaching and less preaching these false ideals will gradually die away.

(2) To initiate agencies for realizing high ideals practically and progressively. Institutional work is needed as much, if not more, in the country as in the city. Few places of amusement and recreation can be found in the country, and such an action on the part of the church would accomplish great things. But care should be taken in choosing the methods to be employed. The warning of Professor Bailey of New York is worth heeding. He tells us that we need country institutions developed from the country viewpoint, rather than city institutions taken to the country. Good reading rooms and illustrated lectures on subjects of interest will be more beneficial to the rural inhabitant than swinging clubs and vaulting bars.

(3) To develop the spirit of sacrifice. This seems to be an unknown element in the rural church. The farmer, unlike the city man, is not accustomed to the daily expenditure of money, and consequently the rural church does not receive his hearty financial support. It is a burning shame that the well to do farmer gives so little to do the work of the Lord. In the southern part of this state there are four members in a certain church that are worth $100,000 each, yet together they give only $100 to the church work. And this case is by no means exceptional. When the farmer learns to give liberally the future of the country church is assured.
